

Thomas Lee Wedel

Education

Bachelor of Science, Mathematics (UCLA)

Master of Science, Information Systems (UCLA)

Ph.D. in Business Administration with major in Decision Analysis (USC)

Employment History

Full Professor

Systems and Operations Management Department

California State University, Northridge

Teaching Specialties: Decision Analysis, Statistics, Operations Management

Founder and President

ELT, Inc.

Founder and President

BeneSys, Inc.

Professional Experience

Pension Administration

Designed, supervised the design, and/or served as project leader in the implementation of pension administration software for the following pension funds: Writers' Guild of America – Producer Pension Plan, Directors' Guild of America – Producer Pension Plan, Motion Picture Industry Pension Plan, Citrus and Avocado Pension Trust, Sheet Metal Workers – Local 170, Laundry and Dry Cleaners, American National Red Cross, Denver Public Schools, Orange County Public Employees, Alameda County Public Employees, State of Montana Public Employees.

Membership Accounting

Designed and served as project leader in the implementation of membership accounting software for the following unions: Writers Guild of America – East, Writers Guild of America – west, Directors Guild of America, and Sheet Metal Workers.

General Accounting

Designed and served as project leader in the development of Financial Administration System/3000 an accounts payable and general ledger accounting package.

Laser Forms

Designed and served as project leader in the development of Lasersoft an electronic forms design package for laser printers.

Sales Management

Designed and served as project leader in the development of Sales Management System/3000 and SalesBase/PC software packages.