

STUDENT CONGRESS RESOLUTIONS

1. WHEREAS thousands of patients die each year waiting for transplants; and

WHEREAS it is already legal to sell one's own eggs and blood;

BE IT RESOLVED that people should be legally able to buy and sell human organs.

2. WHEREAS social interaction between the sexes presents a clear and serious classroom distraction to Middle School students; and

WHEREAS it has been demonstrated that students achieve greater academic proficiency without that kind of distraction;

BE IT RESOLVED that all eighth grade classes in Middle School be single gender.

3. WHEREAS the First Amendment guarantee of religious freedom means that people are free to believe or not believe in God; and

WHEREAS the framers of our constitution clearly wanted a separation of church and state;

BE IT RESOLVED that the reciting of the words "under God" in the Pledge of Allegiance in public school should be banned.

4. WHEREAS the Summer Olympics goes beyond athletics by symbolizing a worldwide commitment to shared moral values and natural rights; and

WHEREAS the host nation of China continues to violate basic human rights as an instrument of national policy;

BE IT RESOLVED that the United States should boycott the 2008 Summer Olympics in Beijing.
