

FCS 380 Tentative Course Calendar

M	Topic	Due/Bring to class/Take action	Readings
1/26	Class business; Introduction to the course. Anatomy of a research article; The importance of organized searching; Topics of interest	Register for turnitin.com. Forward your CSUN email to your personal account. Start thinking about a topic.	Neuman-Ch. 4 Simerly pgs. 1-17, 480-485, & 543-550
2/2 Lab C	Have a good idea what general topic you are going to research. Students should leave the library with several articles related to their subject of interest. What's a style? Annotated references.	Meet in the library-Oviatt Lab C. Upon arrival each student must have an active library card. Students should also have a library copy card, email account, and/or USB/thumb drive. 3 882 scantrons due. Bring APA to class. Bring small post-its and highlighter. Set the default margin if you use Microsoft Word as your word processing program.	APA pgs. 31-60 APA pgs. 77-100, 117-127, 130, 207-213, & 215-246 Neuman-Preface & Ch. 2
2/9	Human inquiry and social science; Human Ecological Theory Ethics of human research	Library assignment due—it must be given to me personally—see page 29. Did you register for turnitin.com? Did you forward your CSUN email?	Neuman-Ch. 3 Simerly pgs. 420-434
2/16	Peer review of annotated references.	10 copies of your annotated references due—you must be present to receive the points. Bring your articles to class. Bring APA to class. Exam 1

M	Topic	Due/Bring to class/Take action	Readings
2/23	Research design The review of literature, not the same as English Lit!; Headings, title page, table of contents	Annotated references due—it must be given to me personally—see page 29. Bring the sample qualitative and quantitative articles to class. Bring all of the Simerly and supplemental summaries, for your option, to class. You do not need to bring the articles if you have not printed them.	Neuman Ch. 1 & 14 Read and summarize (type or handwritten) each of the 6 Simerly and supplemental articles. This is the only activity that is not based on your topic of interest. Repeat APA pgs. 207-213, & 215-246
3/2	Peer review of review of literature Conceptualization and operationalization	10 copies of the review of literature due—you must be present to receive the points. Bring your articles to class. Bring APA to class. Bring peer review checklist. See the writing lab after you incorporate changes from the peer review. Submit your final review of lit to the drafts at turnitin.com.	Neuman-Ch. 5

M	Topic	Due/Bring to class/Take action	Readings
3/9	Survey design Peer review of survey	Review of Literature due—it must be given to me personally—see page 29. Start writing your methods section. 10 copies of survey due—you must be present to receive the points. Bring the peer review checklist. After this class, make suggested corrections to your survey and begin administering them.	Neuman-Ch. 7 Repeat APA pgs. 207-213, & 215-246
3/16	Descriptive and inferential statistics	Exam 2. Finish methods. See writing lab with completed proposal. Bring calculators and pencils Submit proposal to the drafts at turnitin.com	Neuman-Ch. 10
3/23		Research proposal due—it must be given to me personally—see page 29. Bring calculators and pencils
3/30		Bring calculators and pencils
4/13
4/13	Qualitative field research and Qualitative data analysis	Exam 3; Bring calculators and pencils (no scantron). You may NOT borrow a	Neuman-Ch. 11 & 13

M	Topic	Due/Bring to class/Take action	Readings
	Abstracts review Other types of research	calculator during the exam. You should be finishing your quantitative analysis by now Bring completed surveys to class
4/20	Sampling	Bring calculators and pencils. Finish qualitative analysis. You should be finishing the paper by now. See the writing lab with final paper. Submit draft to turnitin.com; Professional Development folder due—it must be given to me personally—see page 29.	Neuman-Ch. 6
4/27	Unobtrusive research; The History of Family and Consumer Sciences	Exam 4 Research papers due—it must be given to me personally—see page 29. Submit your final paper to the final paper section on turnitin.com	Neuman-Ch. 8, 9 & 2 Simerly pgs. 390-405 & 91-120 Repeat APA pgs. 207-213, & 215-246
5/4	Oral Presentations	Oral Presentations 10 points off for unexcused absences
5/11	Oral presentations	Monday Final 8:00-10:00 pm	