

RTM 352

Theorists and Theory

Across

1. Csikszentmihalyi
3. _____ and Anxiety, 1975
6. processes that tend to dominate game play (vertigo)
7. _____ Theory is a concept of play as an alternative to work is embodied in the assumption that play revitalies and restores the mentally and physically tired"
8. _____ the drive to become involved in an activity originating from within the person or activity
10. _____ Theory expenditure of overabundant energy.
11. _____ of _____ is the loss of the "real self" and the temporary acceptance of an "illusory self"
14. telic=
15. inventor of kindergarten

Down

2. _____ locus of control refers to the degree to which individuals perceive that they are in control of their actions and outcomes
4. _____ Theory as an outcome of biological inheritance.
5. processes that tend to dominate game play (simulation)
9. processes that tend to dominate game play (competition)
12. auto=
13. processes that tend to dominate game play (chance)