

A groundbreaking and controversial film based on the 1984 carnage in India.

amu

a film by shonali bose

“Subtly acted, heart-wrenching and informative, it’s made more powerful by the fact that the Indian government tried very hard to suppress the story.”

-New York Magazine

“Exquisite storytelling. A courageous and honest film. Amu is brilliant! A MUST SEE!”

-Mira Nair, director (The Namesake, Salaam Bombay)

“A first rate detective story...Bose is a fearless filmmaker who certainly knows how to tell an engrossing tale without compromising political viewpoint.”

-Hollywood Reporter

STARTS FRIDAY, JUNE 15th in LA

*Filmmakers Shonali Bose and/or Bedabrata Pain will be on hand to do a post-screening Q&A

Laemmle Music Hall

9036 Wilshire Blvd. • Beverly Hills, CA • 310-274-6869

Fri *5:00, *7:30, *10:00

Sat 12:00, 2:30, *5:00, *7:30, *10:00

Sun 12:00, *2:30, *5:00, *7:30, *10:00

Mon-Thu 5:00, *7:30, *10:00

Laemmle Fallbrook

6731 Fallbrook Ave. • West Hills, CA • 818-340-8710

Fri-Sat 11:45, 2:15, 4:45, 7:20, 10:00

Sun 11:45, *2:15, *4:45, *7:20, 10:00

Mon-Thu 12:45, 3:15, 5:45, 8:20

For advance ticket sales visit www.laemmle.com

Edwards Westpark 8

3755 Alton Parkway • Irvine, CA • 949-622-8609

Call Theater for Showtimes

www.amuthethefilm.com www.emergingpictures.com
www.myspace.com/amuthethefilm