

8. "Oh! Don't Go to War, Sam. It Would Just Kill Me." Cincinnati Post, in Review of Reviews, May 1898. Courtesy of Harvard College Library.

13. "Another Old Woman Tries to Sweep Back the Sea." New York Journal, in Review of Reviews, May 1898. Courtesy of Harvard College Library.

10. "Uncle Sam—'All that you need is backbone.'" Chicago Chronicle, in Cartoons of the War of 1898 with Spain (Chicago, 1898). Courtesy of Harvard College Library.

3. "Peace—But Quit That." New York World, in Review of Reviews, April 1898.

5. "She Is Getting Too Feeble to Hold Them." Puck, November 18, 1896.

Courtesy of Harvard College Library.

19. "Uncle Sam before and after his wish for expansion." "Expensive Expansion"
(Boston, 1900). Courtesy of Harvard College Library.

17. "Recommended by Hoar. Hoar: 'Give the child over to the nurse, uncle, and it will stop crying.'" Minneapolis Tribune, in Review of Reviews, June 1899. Courtesy of Harvard College Library.