Complaint of Retaliation for Having Made a Protected Disclosure
Under the California Whistleblower Protection Act

Section 8547.12 of the Government Code forbids retaliation by any employee of the California State University against employees, former employees or applicants for employment for having made protected disclosures under that statute. Allegations of such retaliation may be filed with the employee’s manager or supervisor, or with the campus MPP employee responsible for administering Executive Order 1058 or designated by the President or the Chancellor to handle a particular complaint.
