Additional Questions:

1) State the three basic analytical tools upon which nearly all microeconomic models rely. Provide a general description of each of these tools, as well as an example of how each is used in microeconomics.

2) Clearly explain the meaning of the term “Marginal” as used in microeconomics.