Our Mission and the Balanced Man Scholarship

Sigma Phi Epsilon was founded on three cardinal principles: Virtue, Diligence, and Brotherly Love. We hold our brothers to the highest standard, and believe they should live their lives as a Balanced Man, with both a sound body and sound mind.

We strive to build balanced leaders for the world’s communities. Every year since 1995, our local chapter at California State University, Northridge, has rewarded the Balanced Man Scholarships to individuals that exemplify the principles of our fraternity. These scholarships will aid students in their pursuit of academic excellence. These scholarships are awarded to non-member incoming CSUN students, joining has no bearing on selection of winners!

Last year, we awarded ten scholarships totaling $3,500 to incoming CSUN students.

This year, with the help of our community, we are aiming to award fifteen scholarships totaling $5,000.

All proceeds from the tournament go straight to the Balanced Man Scholarship Fund and are tax deductible. Non-profit Tax ID #953984874

If you know someone who would be interested in applying for the scholarship, please email us at calsigma@gmail.com.
