Mission

The mission of the Department of Business Law is to enable students, through excellence in teaching, to recognize and analyze legal issues arising in the business environment.

Objectives of the Course

Business Law 308 is designed to provide students with an understanding of the legal and ethical environment in which business decisions are made. You will learn of the complexity of legal rules, regulations, and court decisions affecting agency law, employment law, and the law of business organizations. You will continue to develop the analytical reasoning and writing skills you learned in Business Law I. You will read court decisions, prepare written briefs of the decisions, orally defend your interpretations of the cases, and answer hypothetical questions in open class discussion. You are also encouraged to comment on and evaluate the law. You will learn to identify the functions and policies in the law, to compare various forms of doing business, and to consider social, economic, and ethical influences on the law.

Class Preparation

The assignments are included in this syllabus. Be prepared to complete at least one full assignment each class. Even if we do not complete an assignment, prepare the next full assignment for the next class. Assignments include reading from the text, and writing briefs of cases and answers to problems. The cases are contained in the text, while the case problems appear at the end of the chapter. You are required to bring your written briefs (typed or handwritten) of the cases and your answers to the case problems to class until they have been reviewed in class. Briefs and case problems must be submitted on Moodle no later than the start of class on the day they are due in order for you to receive homework credit.
Classroom Policies

Pagers and cell phones should be turned off. DO NOT text message or use your laptop during lectures. Lectures may not be recorded. Please wait until lecture is over before packing up and leaving. No make-up exams will be given, barring extenuating circumstances. Anyone who text messages in class will lose a participation point.

Course Requirements

1. Two midterms: each midterm will comprise 20% of the final grade. The midterms will cover the material indicated on the class assignment list and will be comprised of objective questions requiring detailed analysis of various fact patterns. They may also include short essay questions.

2. Final: 30% of the final grade. The final examination will be cumulative, but will emphasize material covered since the second midterm. It will be similar in form to the midterms. The final will be given on the date and time indicated on SOLAR.

3. Class attendance and participation: 10% of the final grade. There are no excused absences. Arrive to class on time. Three late arrivals will constitute one absence. If a student is absent more than three class sessions, his or her final grade in the class will be reduced one grade level. For example, if a student's total points equate to a "C" for the semester, that grade will be reduced to a "C-" if the student is absent more than three times. If a student is absent for more than 50% of the class sessions, that student will receive a grade of "F" in the course.

   If you do miss class, you are responsible for the material covered on that day and should find out what you missed from another student.

   You will be called on at random throughout the semester to answer questions or read your case problems and briefs. You will receive a participation point simply for reading your homework, regardless of whether or not you answered the question correctly. Two times during the semester you may give me a note at the start of class stating that you are unprepared and no negative mark will be made. You must be present in class to give such a note - it is not available as an excuse for an absence. If you are unprepared, (and have not submitted a note), or absent when called upon, you will receive an “unprepared” mark. Any student who is unprepared when called on will receive a one-point reduction from his or her participation grade in the class.

4. Submitted homework assignments: 10% of the final grade. Each week you will post the required homework assignments on Moodle. Assignments are due no later than 2:00 p.m. on the day they are due in class. Do not submit assignments in person or via email, unless requested to do so. You will receive points for completing the homework – the assignments will not be graded. However, in order to receive credit, your answers should be more than a sentence or two long. Students may not submit identical answers. Make sure to save a copy of your answers and bring them to class.
5. Courtroom Visitation: 5% of the final grade. You are to attend one jury trial in progress. The case can deal with criminal or civil issues. No credit will be given for observing jury selection, traffic court, small claims court, law and motion hearings, bench trials or assignments out of the master calendar. In order to locate a trial in progress, you should speak to the information officer at the courthouse you select, or speak to a court clerk or bailiff in any courtroom. You should plan to make this visit between 9:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. or 1:30 p.m. - 4:00 p.m., Monday through Thursday. Many courts are closed on Friday. You do not need to observe the entire trial - plan to stay two to three hours. You may need to ask the bailiff or court clerk some information during appropriate breaks. Dress appropriately. You may attend the same trial as fellow classmates as long as you write your reports individually. Alternate assignments are available for those who can produce documentation indicating that they cannot attend a jury trial.

Format instructions (2 - 5 points will be deducted for each instruction not followed)
1. The reports should be four full pages, typewritten, double-spaced, 12-point font;
2. Number the pages;
3. Do not print on both sides of the page;
4. All margins should be one inch;
5. Do not leave extra room between paragraphs;
6. Do not include a cover sheet;
7. Cite any sources used (in parentheses after the information, footnotes or endnotes); FAILURE TO CITE SOURCES WILL TRIGGER PLAGIARISM PENALTIES.
8. If you use a long quote, indent and single-space the quote.
9. Put your name, class and date single-spaced in the upper right-hand corner.

Visitation report requirements
1. Courthouse visited and date;
2. How you located a trial in progress;
3. Name of the case you observed;
4. Type of case you observed (civil or criminal, causes of action or crimes charged, the facts available to you);
5. Explain how the law applied to the facts of the case, if possible;
6. Explain how the case related to a topic covered in class, if possible; if the topic has not been covered in class, check the book or the internet (such as findlaw.com, or California Penal Code if it’s a criminal case – DO NOT CITE TO WIKIPEDIA) for the applicable definitions of the legal concepts being discussed in the case;
7. Description of the attorneys’ roles (e.g., questioning witnesses, making objections, speaking to the judge and jury);
8. Description of the judge’s role;
9. Your reaction to the proceeding. (Was the proceeding what you expected, were you excited, bored, etc.)

Papers will be graded for form as well as content. The majority of the report should not be spent explaining how you searched all over the building for a case, or simply summarizing the facts of the case. Write in paragraph form. You may submit the report for feedback up to one week before the due date.

Court Visitation Due: the beginning of class on Wednesday, February 20
6. Partnership Agreement: 5% of the final grade. You may work in groups of two or three (people from this class) to create a partnership agreement. Write a partnership agreement which includes all necessary considerations for creating a partnership, including the type of partnership, duties (check those listed in the text), rights and financial issues. You may use any standard partnership agreement as a guide, but do not simply “fill in the blanks” of a standard form or retype a form changing only a few words. NO CREDIT WILL BE GIVEN FOR FILLING IN THE BLANKS OF A STANDARD FORM. Instead, make any necessary modifications or additions. The agreement should include all elements necessary to make it legally binding, including each group member’s signature. However, at the top of the agreement, write, “CLASS ASSIGNMENT ONLY.” Significant changes must be made to the partnership form used. The best agreements not only incorporate the information listed below, but also put the agreement in your own words. (For example, you can change the word "shall" to "will.") You may obtain a form partnership agreement at many stationers and bookstores or you may copy one from a layperson’s guide to business organizations, which should be available in any law library. Public law libraries are located in most courthouses, along with the central county law library downtown. Many students have found forms on the internet. You should not have to pay to find a form.

For full credit, you must hand in the following in a folder or notebook:

1. all notes and drafts
2. all original partnership forms that your group used
3. one final copy of the agreement per group; use headings, single space each section, then double space in between each section;
4. a history of how the partnership was formed (separate from the agreement)
5. specific duties of each of the partners
6. applicable information from the text regarding the partners’ duties
7. an example of what the business will be doing (such as a menu, sample price list)

Due: the beginning of class on Wednesday, May 1

Communication

I am generally accessible via email; please allow 24 hours for a response. Please include your name, class and class time in all emails since I frequently have more than one section of the same class.

Extra Credit

During the semester, there may be opportunities for extra credit. However, you should not count on extra credit points as a way of raising your grade.
Grading Policies

Plagiarism and cheating will not be tolerated. Any student found to have either submitted work that was not his/her own (this includes either another student’s work or information from an uncredited, on-line source) or cheated on an exam will be given an “F” on the assignment, potentially in the class, and may be referred to the office of student affairs for further discipline.

Grades will be given utilizing the grade point scale set forth in the “Regulations” section of the CSUN catalog. Grades are based on a 100 point scale, and plus and minus grading will be used. All cases of cheating result in a grade of “F” for the course and are referred to the Dean’s office for further action. You are responsible for following the academic regulations of the University and the standards of academic honesty applicable to all students. Collaboration on examinations and graded assignments is prohibited.

Please note: the grade reached after averaging the assignments and exams will be the minimum grade you can receive in the course. At the professor’s sole discretion, your course grade may be raised based on class participation and improvement.

   1. She may sell any card for the price marked on the card.
   2. Pointing to a case containing the more expensive cards, he tells her that he might negotiate the price on those cards if the customer wants to wait until he returns.

   Shortly after Jack left, Linda sold Billy, a 10-year-old little league player, an Ernie Banks rookie card for $12. The card bore a sticker on the back which read “1200.” Billy apparently was unaware of the card’s true value and did not try to negotiate its price. Did Linda have express, implied, or apparent authority to sell the card for $12?
