Clear Induction Program Coursework Outline

Mild-Moderate Disabilities

Formative Assessment (3 units)

SPED 628: Induction and Formative Assessment (3)

Must be taken in the first semester of the program. This course provides for collaboration between the candidate, the university instructor, and the Support Provider in the development of a written Individualized Induction Plan (IIP).

Advanced Pedagogy Courses (6 units). Pedagogy courses may be used for the MA. Courses used for the Preliminary Credential cannot be counted toward the Clear Credential.

Select 2 advanced pedagogy courses from the following options.

Assessment and Instruction

- SPED 671  Advanced Study of Literacy Problems (3)
- SPED 672  Advanced Assessment (3)

Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD)

- SPED 404  Teaching Diverse Learners with Social-Communication Disabilities including Autism (3)
- SPED 655  Theoretical & Empirical Bases of Education of Learners with Autism (3)

Diverse Learners

- SPED 416  Educating Diverse Learners with Disabilities and Working With Their Families (3)
- SPED 595T  Assistive Technology (3) may not be used here if needed under additional requirements

Emotional Disturbance

- SPED 695A  Advanced Positive Behavior Support (3)
- SPED 652  Educating Children with Emotional Disturbance (3)

Assessment of Professional Competence (3 units)

SPED 638: The Role of the Special Educator in the Twenty-First Century (3).

Prerequisite: SPED 628. Must be taken in the last semester of the program and may be used for the MA. This course provides a mechanism for a final assessment of the candidate’s competence in individually targeted areas appearing on the Individualized Induction Plan (IIP) and proficiency in meeting standards for the Clear Induction Education Specialist Credential.

Additional Requirements for Candidates Who Completed a Level I Education Specialist Credential Program:

Health Requirement (select one of the following):

- HSCI 365LS  Health Science for Liberal Studies (3 units)
- HSCI 466ADO  Health Issues of the Adolescent (1 unit)
- HSCI 465ELM  Teaching Health in the Elementary School (1 unit)
Technology (select one of the following):

SPED 595T  Assistive Technology (preferred) (3 units)
EED 515  Basic Technology Methods (2 units)
SED 514  Computers in the Instructional Program (3 units)

CPR Certification: Must hold valid Infant, Child and Adult CPR Certification (online CPR will not be accepted) Information can be found here.