Chapter 12 homework
MUST answer questions below

(1) Complete the elevator problem case study by developing state diagrams for the other classes shown in class lecture material (ch12 page30)

(2) What is the latest point in the Object-Oriented analysis process at which classes can be introduced without adversely affecting the project?

(3) Why do you think the attributes of the classes but not the methods are determined during Object-Oriented analysis?