WHAT A PROFESSOR EXPECTS FROM STUDENTS

DO NOT:

1. Talk excessively or carry on long conversations during a lecture.

2. Study for other classes during class session.

3. Read any material (e.g., newspapers, “Sundial,” magazines, texts or material from another class.

4. Sleep, put your head down on your desk, or close your eyes & take a nap during class.

5. Gather your things and get up to leave during the class session or leave to go to the restroom and fail to return. Note: If you must leave class early, please request permission of professor before class begins. It is considered highly discourteous to leave a class during its session!!!

7. Be discourteous, disrespectful or insolent to the professor or your classmates.

DO:

1. Complete all assignments on time.

2. Attend class regularly, be on time and remain for entire session.

3. Read assignments before class.

4. Ask questions---but not to the point of annoyance or distraction.

5. Take adequate notes.

6. Obtain the address & telephone numbers of at least two other students in the class in order to form a study group, converse on assignments and in case of an emergency.

7. Be collegial with the students in your class.

8. Be courteous & follow any reasonable requests by guest speakers.

9. Make appointment with professor in advance if you have any questions that cannot be resolved during class.