

Patriot Environmental Laboratory Services, Inc. is seeking entry-level Environmental Field Technicians.

The Environmental Field Technician position will be responsible for conducting asbestos, lead-based paint and mold sampling, abatement oversight, air sampling, and report writing.

Requirements:

An Environmental B.A., B.S. or similar degree is preferred. Current students eligible for such a degree by June 2006 may also be considered for this position. Must possess excellent computer software skills including Microsoft Word, Excel, and Outlook. Must be extremely organized, detail oriented, and have the ability to multi-task.

Patriot Environmental Laboratory Services, Inc. offers a competitive benefits package including, but not limited to, medical, dental, vacation time and a retirement savings plan.

Southern California based, Patriot Environmental Laboratory Services Inc., is a leading edge environmental laboratory and environmental consulting services firm, specializing in all aspects of asbestos, lead-based paint, and mold environmental consulting and laboratory analysis.

Candidates who would like consideration for this position should fax a current resume to (714) 899-7098, Attention: Chris Blake.

For additional information about Patriot Environmental Laboratory Services, Inc., please visit us at www.patriotlab.com.