2017-2018 ANNUAL REPORT
SPORT CLUBS COUNCIL

The Sport Clubs Council is the governing body that distributes budgets, and represents, advocates, markets and plans for the Associated Students (A.S.) Sport Clubs. This year, the Sport Clubs Council approved seven Supplemental Funding Requests which allowed the Men's Basketball Club to attend Nationals in Ohio, and numerous purchases including the Women's Rugby Club's new posts for their home games, new tables for the Table Tennis Club and uniforms for the Cheer Club and Women's Lacrosse club. The Council also received an increase in funding for the 2018-19 school year, which will be allocated to our various clubs and other programmatic expenses. Our 7th Annual Sports-a-Palooza had the highest participation numbers ever. The council hosted the first ever Sport Clubs Movie Night, held at the Matador Baseball Field. The officers for the 2017-18 year were Samantha Sveiven from the Women's Volleyball Club as President, Eduardo Espinoza from the Cheerleading Club as Vice President, Jessica Ramirez-Shea from the Women's Rugby Club as Treasurer, Jasmine Galdamez from Salsa Libre as Secretary, and Griffin Abrams from Table Tennis as Events and Planning.
MATADOR SPORTS NETWORK

The Matadors Sports Network (MSN) provides the CSUN Sport Clubs an opportunity to engage, showcase, and build a brand around their club and athletes. MSN’s goal is to cover and live stream the biggest Sport Club events each week, working to provide highlight reels for the teams to look over, building weekly sports shows and team interviews, and cultivating an enthusiastic student following through social media engagement. This year, the Matador Sports Network streamed/broadcasted 57 Sport Club games/competitions, and all of the Intramural Sports Championship games in Spring Semester. This was also the first full year that MSN released the bi-weekly Sport Clubs Newsletter, which had an average of 1,000 readers each edition.
ATHLETIC TRAINING

The Sport Clubs Athletic Training Department provides injury prevention management and injury rehabilitation sustained while participating in Sport Clubs. Our department also provides a dedicated strength and conditioning program for the Sport Club participants. This year Head Athletic trainer Wyatt Blue moved on from the program, he served in the role for two years in order to focus on his business. Wyatt was instrumental in the growth of the Athletic Training program, the implementation of the High Performance Training Center and the strength and conditioning program. Joyce Lee, who has served as an Athletic Trainer with us for two years, was hired on as the new Head Athletic Trainer. The program will also be hiring two new professional staff members, a full-time athletic trainer and a part-time athletic trainer. The Athletic training program had seven student staff, and treated about 40-50 student-athletes on a daily basis and around 4,000 treatments for the year.
Archery

This year, the Archery Club took a trip up to UC Davis for the Aggie Wild Hunt competition. The graduating seniors were Claire Plauzoles and Ben Weissman. The club also received a generous donation from the Easton Foundation that will be used to renovate the club's practice space and pay for a coach for the next ten years. The club had 12 active members, their dues were $100 per semester, and went on two trips. Their budget allocation was $1,000 for the year and their total expenditures were $2,638.

Climbing

The club practiced at Top Out this past year, a climbing gym in Santa Clarita. The club hosted “Spooky Comp”, a fundraising climbing competition for students and community members this past Halloween in the SRC. Graduating Seniors were Andrew Brown and Kane Hassel. The club had 19 active members, their dues were $50 for the year, and their budget allocation was $2,500 for the year.
Brazilian Jiu Jitsu

The Brazilian Jui Jitsu club hosted their first tournament at CSUN this year, with participation from UC Irvine and USC. They also won a tournament hosted at UC Irvine with 9 wins and 1 loss. Their Officer of the Year went to Brandon Harding, who served as President, and their graduating seniors were Brandon Harding, Aaron Estrada, and Ely Alvarez. The club had 39 active members, their dues were $80 per semester and went on one trip. Their budget allocation was $2,750 for the year and their total expenses were $6,421.

Boxing

The Boxing Club had a tumultuous year, with turnover in leaders and coaching staff. Unfortunately, the team did not compete in 2017-18. However major strides were made with the addition of Brandon Krause as the new Head Coach. Krause is a CSUN alum and has had success training amateur and professional fighters in multiple weight classes. His holistic and thorough approach has been greatly appreciated by all members of the club as he as exposed us to the training that has proven effective for world champions. With Coach Krause and the new leaders for 2018-19 already in place and working, the club will look to take major steps forward next year. The club had 16 active members and their dues were $120 per semester. Their budget allocation for the year was $3,500 and their total expenditures were $5,300.
Ballroom Dance

The Ballroom Dance Club competed in four collegiate competitions this year; UC Santa Barbara Beach Ball, USC Glamour Smackdown, UC Riverside Orange Blossom Ball and the Claremont Showdown. They also won the Outstanding Sport Club Award at the 2017-2018 Clubs & Organizations Awards Ceremony held by the Matador Involvement Center. Their graduating seniors were Jed Barris, Rebecca Lynn Jones, and Erica Burke. The club had 18 active members, their dues were $80 per semester, and they went on four trips. They raised $2,000 through fundraising and donations, their budget allocation for the year was $4,000 and their total expenditures were $10,395.
The Baseball club had its most successful season ever. They made the regional playoff for the first time ever, they defeated last year’s National Champions, and did not lose a series the entire season. This led them to become the Pacific Central Division Champions and they finished in 3rd place in the Pacific Region of the National Club Baseball Association Division II. This season, their major travel included Phoenix, Arizona, San Diego, and Lancaster, CA for the playoffs. The club had 25 active members, their dues were $250 per semester and they went on seven trips. They raised $6,500 through fundraising and donations, their budget allocation for the year was $5,500 and their total expenditures were $11,000.
Men's Basketball

The Men’s Basketball club finished the season in 2nd place in the Southern Pacific-North conference of the National Club Basketball Association with a record of 8 wins and 4 losses. Their overall record was 17 wins and 7 losses. In November, both basketball clubs hosted their 4th Annual Turkey Jam Tournament, and the men’s club won it for the second year in a row. For the post season, the club traveled to Sacramento State University for the NIRSA Regional Tournament, where they finished in 3rd place. They were invited to Ohio State University for the NIRSA National Tournament, and came in 12th place. Their graduating seniors this year were Damajaha’ Netherly, Terence Garcia, Nicola Vega, Dominique Curtis Rollins, and Andrew Morris. The club had 15 active members, their dues were $150 per year and they went on three trips. They raised $2,500 through fundraising and donations, their budget allocation was $4,500 for the year and their total expenses were $8,000.
Women's Basketball

This year, the Women’s Basketball Club traveled to Sacramento State for the NIRSA Regional Tournament, and won 7 out of their last 10 games in the post season. Their graduating seniors were Lala Henigan and Cheyenne Hendrix-Porter, who served as President this year. The club had 13 active members, their dues were $175 for the year and they went on 3 trips. Their budget allocation for the year was $2,500 and their total expenditures were $5,600.
Cheer

The Cheerleading Squad performed at many of the major campus events this year, which include Matador Madness, President's Picnic, Spring Kickoff, and the Beat Long Beach Rally. They also received 1st place in the 4-yr University Large Co-ed division at the 2018 JAMZ Collegiate Nationals in Las Vegas, Nevada. Other travel included South Bend, Indiana for a NCAA Women’s Basketball game and Santa Barbara. Their graduating seniors were Faith Mitchell and Alexander Nava. The club had 20 active members, their dues were $90 per semester and they went on two trips. They raised $4,674 through donations and fundraising, their budget allocation was $9,000 for the year and their total expenditures were $14,000.
Dance

The Dance Club traveled to Las Vegas for the Pro Action Dance event. They also had performances at Matador Madness, CSUN Men’s and Women’s basketball games and the Flash mob event for ReNew Health Group Anniversary Party. Their graduating seniors were Alyssa Palado, Jalia Washington, Kaitlyn Desaultes. The club had 18 active members, their dues were $450 for the year and they went on one trip. Their budget allocation was $4,500 for the year and their total expenditures were $4,300.

Fasmode

The Fasmode Dance Crew hosted their 9th Annual Night of Expressions Event this year. A portion of the proceeds went to the Semper Fi Fund, a non-profit organization that creates programs for wounded veterans. They also won “Best Group Performance” at the 2017 CSUN Student Showcase. Their graduating senior was Deshawna Fisher. The club had 17 active members, their dues were $170 per semester, and they went on five trips. They raised $700 through donations and fundraising, their budget allocation was $2,500 and their total expenditures were $2,000.
Ice Hockey

The Ice Hockey club came out on top of their conference this year, defending their West Coast Hockey Conference Championship. They took the most out-of-state trips this year out of all of our Sport Clubs with their trips to Minnesota, Wisconsin and Idaho. The team finished ranked 15th in the Western Region and the top team in California. Their graduating seniors were Alex Reints, Jacob Steinfeld, Mason Yuen, Garrett Heftye, John Blascoe, Thompson Pang, Evan Wright, Hans Wurmsdobler, Maxwell Goen, Levi Bolls and Kevin Standke. The club had 28 active members, their dues were $2,850 for the year, and went on 11 trips. They raised $4,000 through donations and fundraising, their budget allocation was $24,000 for the year and their total expenditures were $100,000.
Men's Rugby

The Men’s Rugby Club had one of their most successful seasons under strong leadership this year. Although this was their first year playing in Division 1 of the Gold Coast Conference Intercollegiate Rugby League, they embraced the higher level of competition, made the playoffs, and finished the season in 3rd place. Their Players of the Year went to Michael Mbakata and Jordan Rhoades, as they were instrumental in the success of the club. Their graduating seniors were Gigi Kuo, Jordan Rhodes, Harut Torosyan, Edward Banuet, David Garza, Michael Vu, Patrick Cruz, Miguel Gamboa, Wendell Velasquez and Evans Akatch. Gigi Kuo also won Sport Clubs Officer of the Year, awarded by the Sport Clubs Council. The club had 27 active members this year, their dues were $300 for the year, and they went on eight trips. Their budget allocation was $4,500 and their total expenditures were $11,000.
The Women's Rugby Club also saw success this season, as they made it to the playoffs in their first year playing in Division 1 of the Gold Coast Conference Intercollegiate Rugby League. In November, the club traveled to UC San Diego for the Scrum by the Sea Tournament, and finished in 3rd place. Their president this past year, Viviana Garcia, was also recognized by FloRugby.com as a “Women’s College Player of the Week”. Their graduating seniors were Alyah Thomas, Stephanie Szkszkowski, Yoselin Ayala Mendez. The club had 19 active members, their dues were $400 for the year and they went on six trips. Their budget allocation for the year was $11,500 and their total expenditures were $19,000.
Salsa Libre
The Salsa Libre Club had another dominating year. They won 1st place at the 2018 Collegiate Salsa Open and at the 2018 College Salsa Congress, both of which were 1st place title defenses. The club hosted a Winter Night Social, a Havanna Social, and also collaborated with the Soraya Center to host instructional workshops at the event center. Their Member of the year was Carlos Hernandez and the Officer of the Year was Allan Valle, who served as president. Salsa Libre was also won the Community Service Award and the Wiley Simpson Dance Club of the Year at the Sport Clubs Banquet. The club had 55 active members this year, their dues were $140 per semester and they went on seven trips. They raised $4,329 through donations and fundraising, their budget allocation was $6,000 for the year and their total expenditures were $22,000.
Men's Soccer

The Men's Soccer club’s conference record was 6 wins, 4 losses and 2 draws. They participated in the Aztec Cup hosted by San Diego State, and in the UC Irvine Anteater Invitational Tournament. Their combined tournament record was 3 wins, 2 losses and 1 draw. Their club’s MVP this year was Brandon Waters, with Honorable Mention going to Andrew Khapsalis. The clubs graduating seniors were Sergio Del Campo, Osin Orellana, and Jose Navarijo. Kenny Orduno served as President. The club had 30 active members this year, their dues were $100 per semester and they went on 10 trips. Their budget allocation this year was $8,500 and their total expenditures were $10,000.
Women's Soccer

This year was a rebuilding year for the Women's Soccer club, but everyone stayed committed and focused on growing their skills and the team as a whole. They finished the year in 4th place in their league, with a season record of 3 wins, 3 losses, and no draws. They went to Sacramento in April to compete in the National Showcase Tournament. Their graduating seniors were Emily Ferialdi, Nava Beinstock, and Alexis Beltran. The club had 22 active members this year, their dues were $160 per semester and they went on 10 trips. They raised $500 through donations and fundraising, their budget allocation was $8,000 for the year and their total expenditures were $9,500.
Table Tennis

The future looks very bright for the Table Tennis Club as they saw significant growth in their membership numbers this year, and they also acquired in a new coach with US National team experience. They placed 5th in the Socal West Division of the NCHA. The club had 16 active members this year, their dues were $35 per semester, and they went on three trips. They raised $250 through donations and fundraising, their budget allocation for the year was $2,000 and their total expenditures were $4,100.

Tennis

The Tennis Club traveled to Pepperdine and University of San Diego this year for competitions. The clubs MVP was Peter Lau, their Officer of the Year was Anthony Aguilar, and their player of the year was Danielle Tranter. The club’s graduating seniors were Jessica Xie and Peter Lau. The club had 12 active members this year, their dues were $60 per semester and they went on three trips. They raised $400 through donations and fundraising, their budget allocation was $3,500 for the year and their total expenditures were $7,400.
Men's Volleyball

This year, both Men’s Volleyball teams had success. Both the A and B team's qualified for Division 1 and they both finished in the Top 5. They were the only school to have both of its teams qualify for the Gold Bracket in the Championships. Their player of the year was CJ Suarez and their Officers of the Year were Joshua Manlutac and John Bedikian. The club’s graduating seniors were CJ Suarez, Bryan Ronsayro, Gabriel Thompson, Kai Valdivieso, Mario Urquidez, Nathan May, Jeffrey Tolentino, Harrison. Men’s Volleyball was awarded the Sport Club of the Year, by the Sport Club Council. The club had 33 active members this year, their dues were $575 for the year, and they went on 10 trips. They raised $4,100 through donations and fundraising, their budget allocation was $5,000 for the year and their total expenditures were $30,000.
Women's Volleyball

The Women’s Volleyball club fought hard all season as they started off as the 12th ranked team, and finished the season off as the 6th ranked team overall, winning 1st place in the Silver Bracket. Their season record was 9 wins and 5 losses. They also brought on a new coach, Jamie Quaglino. Their graduating seniors were Azeezat Antonio, Kimberly Ho, and Mckenzie Pantana. The club had 19 active members this year, their dues were $275 per semester and they went on seven trips. They raised $1,345 through donations and fundraising, their budget allocation was $5,000 for the year and their total expenditures were $15,700.
Wrestling

The Wrestling Club had another successful year under strong coaching and club members. The club finished 5th in California, 8th in the West Coast Conference of the NCWA, and 43rd in the nation at the NCWA Nationals. Chris Nunez won the State Championship in the 149lbs division, went 5-0 in California, got 4th in the West Coast Conference and finished in the top 16 at the NCWA Nationals. Chris was also awarded Male Athlete of the Year, by the Sport Clubs Council. Seamus Sullivan came in 6th in the West Coast Conference, top 16 at the NCWA Nationals and was an Academic All-American. Tiel Bowers finished 5th in the West Coast Conference and top 16 at the NCWA Nationals. The club was also involved with Beat The Streets Los Angeles, a philanthropic organization that provides coaching and mentoring through wrestling to under privileged youth in the Los Angeles Area. The graduating seniors were Chris Nunez and Seamus Sullivan. The club had 14 active members this year, their dues were $150 for the year, and they went on five trips. They raised $650 in donations and fundraising, their budget allocation was $5,000 for the year, and their total expenditures were $15,000.
Women's Wrestling

This was the first year that the Women’s Wrestling club was active and they saw much success despite being a new club. Angelica Galvez placed 3rd in the nation at the NCWA Nationals and Coach Evan Hess won the NCWA Women’s Wrestling Coach of the Year. The club was awarded New Sport Club of the Year by the Sport Clubs Council. The club had six active members this year, their dues were $120 per year and they went on three trips. They raised $1,400 through donations and fundraising, and their budget allocation was $500 for the year.

Women's Lacrosse

The Women’s Lacrosse club went through a major rebuilding year. They had a few games with other club teams and set a foundation to have a successful team in the future. They are focusing on introducing and spreading the sport to new athletes who may have not been exposed to lacrosse in the past. Their graduating senior was Joelle Barnard. The club had 12 active members this year and their dues were $200 per semester. They raised $200 through donations and fundraising, their budget allocation was $3,500 for the year, and their total expenditures were $8,800.
Water Polo

The Water Polo club had an exciting year. They had a successful transition to a new league, and they also hosted a tournament on our campus for the first time against UC Irvine and University of San Diego, which they won 1st place in. They also had a women’s team scrimmage for the first time in recent years due to successful recruiting and networking. The club also traveled to Arizona and UC San Diego this past year for tournaments. The club's new Treasurer, Kirsten Leduc, finished the year with a 4.0 GPA, and Chelsea Brisson submitted her thesis for the Biology Master’s Program. The clubs graduating seniors were Evin Lilly, Silva Aryapetyan, Siris Pinget, and Carlos Gonzales. The club had 19 active members this year, their dues were $100 per semester, and they went on three trips. Their budget allocation for the year was $4,000 and their total expenditures were $7,505.

Weightlifting

This was the first year the Weightlifting club has been recognized. They are growing in interest are looking forward to the coming year. The club had 12 active members this year and their dues were $15 per semester.