Verification of Dependents Other than a Child/Spouse 2013-2014

On your 2013-2014 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) you answered “Yes” to the question, “Do you have dependents (other than your children or spouse) who live with you and who receive more than half of their support from you, now and through June 30, 2013?”

This is the only thing that qualifies you as an Independent student for financial aid eligibility. You must complete this form to verify this information.

Section 1 - Questions

You must answer the following questions. Circle your response for each.

1. Do you have legal dependents (other than your child or spouse) that currently live with you?	Yes	No
2. Do they receive more than half of their financial support from you?	Yes	No
3. Will you continue to provide more than half of their financial support from July 1, 2013 through June 30, 2014?	Yes	No

If you answered No to any of the questions above, STOP. You are considered a dependent student for financial aid purposes. You must immediately correct your 2013-14 FAFSA. On your FAFSA, you must change your answer to “No” on the question “Do you have dependents (other than your children or spouse) who live with you and who receive more than half of their support from you, now and through June 30, 2014?”, provide parental information, income and signature. If you cannot provide parental data, please contact our office for further instructions.

If you answered “Yes” to ALL the questions above, you must complete Sections 2 through 4.

Section 2 - Your Dependents Other than a Child or Spouse

In the chart below, list all people that you support ONLY if they:

- Currently live with you, AND
- Receive more than half of their financial support from you, AND
- Will continue to receive more than half of their financial support from you July 1, 2013 through June 30, 2014.
