Position:

The Department of Art at California State University, Northridge (CSUN) invites applications for a full-time tenure-track Assistant Professor of 2D and 3D Animation, with an appointment starting Fall 2020. The candidate will be qualified to teach BA, BFA, MA and MFA level courses in Animation. This appointment is a teaching assignment with a typical teaching load of three studio art classes each semester plus weekly office hours, attendance at faculty and area meetings, participation in other professional activities, and service to the department, college, university, and community. The successful candidate will contribute to a dynamic animation program with a track record of growth and distinction derived from awards earned by its students, the successful art careers of its alumni, and the professional achievements of its faculty. The candidate must effectively teach and facilitate an animation curriculum for students who have an area of concentration in animation, visual effects, game development, and entertainment design. Typical course assignments include the teaching of traditional 2D and software-based animation skills. Faculty members are responsible for creative activity and/or scholarly research recognized by a peer review, current ongoing professional practice in the field, along with advising and mentoring students.

The successful candidate will be held to the standards and requirements of the college and department in which he/she is housed for recommending tenure and promotion.

Qualifications:

- An MFA degree in Art with a concentration in animation or appropriate area from an accredited institution or foreign equivalency, or post-baccalaureate experience, training, and expertise at least equivalent to those required for the Master of Fine Arts degree is required.
- College or university level teaching experience is required.
- Professional experience in the field with a record of creative achievement is required.
- Evidence of strong traditional skills in animation, design, and drawing are required.
- Proficiency with 3D software such as Autodesk Maya, Unity, or ZBrush is preferred.

At time of appointment, the successful candidate, if not a U.S. citizen, must have authorization from the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) to work in the United States.

Application Deadline:

Screening of applications will begin January 15, 2020. Priority will be given to applicants who meet the screening deadline, however the position will remain open until filled.

How to Apply:

Applicants must submit:

- Letter of application summarizing your qualifications for this position (PDF)
- Resume or Curriculum Vitae (PDF)
- Statement of teaching philosophy and methods (PDF)
- Portfolio of professional/creative work (PDF/link to website)
- 15-20 examples of student work (PDF/video links)
  - Video clips should be submitted via a link (YouTube, Vimeo, or your website) in your application documents

INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED

In later phases of the search process, applicants may be requested to provide references, verification of terminal degrees, licenses and certificates.

This institution is using Interfolio's ByCommittee to conduct this search. Applicants to this position receive a free Dossier account and can send all application materials, including confidential letters of recommendation, free of charge to: <http://apply.interfolio.com/71148>
