Policy No.: 200-25
Effective: 07/16/2003
Last Revised & Effective: 07/01/2023
Newly Revised & Effective: 10/06/2023

I. POLICY

It is the policy of the California State University (CSU) that hospitality expenses may be paid to the extent that such expenses are necessary, appropriate to the occasion, reasonable in amount and serve a purpose consistent with the mission and fiduciary responsibilities of the CSU. The policy applies to activities that promote the CSU to the public and the provision of hospitality in connection with official CSU business and specifies the state and auxiliary funds that may be used for such purposes.

This document will serve to fulfill the requirement of the CSU PolicyStat 13790907 – Hospitality Policy, for each campus and its auxiliary organizations (auxiliaries) to develop written procedures, consistent with (or more restrictive, if preferred), regarding the payment of ordinary and necessary hospitality expenses. CSUN auxiliaries may document their own specific procedures that complies with the CSU policy.

II. PROCEDURES

A. PURPOSE:

This policy governs the manner and extent in which CSUN and its auxiliaries may provide hospitality to employees, students, donors, guests, visitors, volunteers, and other individuals as part of a business meeting; recreational, sporting or entertainment event; or other occasion that promotes the mission of the CSU. The policy also addresses meals served to employees are part of a morale-building function and meals provided to prospective students and employees.

B. SCOPE:

This policy governs the appropriate use of state, auxiliary organizations, sponsored program administration, private-purpose trust and fiduciary funds unless legally and otherwise restricted (e.g., documented fund agreements). C. AUTHORITY:

Authority for this policy is pursuant to California Education Code § 89044. This policy is issued under the delegation of authority from the chancellor to the executive vice chancellor and chief financial officer, and implementation and compliance with the policy if further delegated to the campus chief financial officer. California Education Code § 66600, 89030, and 89035.

D. ALLOWABLE EXPENDITURES:

Hospitality expenses must be directly related to, or associated with, the active conduct of official university business. When an employee acts as an official host, the occasion must, in the best judgment of the approving authority, serve a clear university business purpose, with no personal benefit derived by the official host or other employees. In addition, the usage of funds for hospitality should be cost effective and in accordance with the best use of public funds.

When determining whether a hospitality expense is appropriate, the approving authority must evaluate the importance of the event in terms of the costs that will be incurred, the benefits to be derived from such an expense, the availability of funds, and any alternatives that would be equally effective in accomplishing the desired objectives. Following are examples of occasions when the provision of hospitality is permitted under this policy (fund restrictions still apply):

- CSUN hosts or sponsors business meetings that directly correlate with the operations of CSUN;
- CSUN hosts official guests with an interest in CSUN;
- CSUN is the host or sponsor of a meeting of a learned society or professional organization;

Current maximum rates can be found in Addendum A along with further guidance. Maximum rates are inclusive of the total cost of food, beverages, labor, sales tax, delivery fees or other service fees.

2. Spouses, Domestic Partners, and Significant Others

   Hospitality provided to the spouse, domestic partner, significant other, or other immediate family member of an employee might be permitted when it serves a university business purpose such as ceremonial functions, fundraising events, alumni gatherings, athletic games, and community events. An agenda, invitation or similar documentation should be included with the payment record.

Permissible activities may include recruitment efforts, student activities, student programs, student organization events, student recognition events and commencements. Students may be hosted to attend fundraising and other community relations events that enhance their learning experience, in recognition of their student achievement, to engage with alumni and donors, or as representatives of student leadership.
