WELCOME TO TADW

Hello and welcome to the 61st Annual Teenage Drama Workshop sponsored by the Department of Theatre and the Mike Curb College of Arts, Media, and Communication at California State University, Northridge. We are happy to have you with us for another exciting summer at TADW.

The faculty and staff wish you well these six weeks you spend with us on campus.

TADW is designed to give you an opportunity to engage in the creative and collaborative activities of theatre, which will benefit you personally, academically, and in your community life. Some of you come with many years of dramatic experience, others with none, but together we will explore the varied aspects of drama to make this a dynamic and celebratory summer.

Take advantage of the many activities and opportunities offered to you this summer; however, please remember that we are operating as a team, and the failure of any one individual to meet his or her obligations hurts the efforts of the entire group. Class work should be your first priority, and attendance is mandatory for participating in the plays. The productions are a reflection of the exploration and growth of students in their morning classes. If nothing else is accomplished this summer, we hope you will prove that you are a young adult that can assume responsibility, make worthwhile decisions, and honor your commitments.

While at CSUN, it is important that students respect campus rules carefully and stay away from construction areas.

We hope that you will form many friendships this summer and that all of us will have a creative, productive, and enjoyable summer.

Sincerely,

The TADW Faculty and Staff
HISTORY OF TADW

The California State University, Northridge, Teenage Drama Workshop is the oldest university-sponsored summer program in the United States which concentrates on the development of theatre skills in both the classroom and performance. It is open to any 7-12 grade student interested in the art of the Theatre. The production program presents public performances so that the participant has the opportunity to apply the skills he develops in the classroom to live audiences.

The Workshop was created in 1957 through the efforts of the actress Marsha Hunt, Mrs. Marvin Owens of the San Fernando Valley Youth Foundation, and Dr. William E. Schlosser of the University. Before the first session was completed, the response of the students and public assured the future of the project. The conscientious support of Dr. Delmar T. Oviatt, Dean in charge of the new campus, and then Dr. Ralph Prator, when he became the first President of the San Fernando Valley State College, firmly established the Workshop.

Operating first in a tent on Zelzah Street parking lot, the Workshop was subsequently held in a service building converted into a theatre and an exhibition hall in the Devonshire Downs, before finally making its home in the modern Nordhoff Hall building.

When the final curtain is lowered on this, the 61st Annual Workshop, over 5,000 young people will have studied, worked and played in the program; and well over 1,500 performances will have been given for hundreds of thousands of young people and adults. The continued support of this project by the University and the community guarantee that the young people of the San Fernando Valley will have an opportunity to see and to participate in live Theatre-activity which we hope will provide entertainment, a basic understanding and an appreciation for one of man's oldest art forms.

THE WORKSHOP PROGRAM

The curriculum is designed to provide each student with the opportunity to develop basic theatre skills. Theatre concepts and techniques are studied in the acting, voice and movement classes and applied in the musical theatre, playwriting, improvisation, and tech/design classes. All workshop classes adhere to the California Visual and Performing Arts Content Standards. Application of the student's learning is seen in the public performances of the Workshop.

ACTING

Level 1 acting students will study the fundamentals of acting -- how the actor uses his/her mind, body, voice, emotions, and senses on stage. Advanced work in acting with emphasis upon more complicated roles is required of Level 2 students. Level 3 focuses on the oldest workshop students with a more intensive approach including the Stanislavski technique.

DANCE

In dance classes, students will learn about proper body alignment to help them in the quality of their movement. Special focus will be placed on proper warmup methods to strengthen muscles and avoid injury. Students will learn dance technique in various areas such as ballet, traditional jazz, lyrical, musical theatre, Latin jazz, swing, and hip hop.

VOICE

Emphasis will be placed on fundamentals of breathing, singing and vocal production. Students will also explore basic stage voice and speech.

ELECTIVES

This year elective classes will focus on musical theatre, playwriting, improvisation, and tech/design. Students enrolled in these courses will enjoy an in-depth experience in that particular area of interest.
THE PRODUCTION PROGRAM

The principles and practices studied in the classroom will be applied in production assignments. Students in the performance track will be cast in roles that involve singing, dancing, and acting while students in our tech program will assist with construction, painting, lighting, sound, and stage management under the supervision of faculty.

ACTING IN PRODUCTIONS

Every student in the performance track will audition for roles in the two productions presented during the Workshop session. Roles will be assigned by the director on the basis of the actor’s suitability for the role and how a part will benefit the student. Rehearsals usually take place from 1:15 until 4:15pm, Monday through Friday. However, there are some Saturday morning rehearsals and many evenings when students will be required to stay until 6pm for technical and dress rehearsals. Students must attend all rehearsals. Acting in a production of this caliber is a privilege and requires attendance in all classes. Students with too many absences may be dismissed from productions.

Generally, there is a call-time of 2 hours before a show. This means, actors need to be at the theatre 2 hours before a show starts to get into costumes and makeup.

On days when there are 11am shows, students are still required to be at TADW at 8:15am for morning classes.

CLOSING/ STRIKING A PRODUCTION

After the last performance of a production the set and lighting need to be taken down, costumes and props must be put away, and the theatre space needs to be cleaned. This is called “Strike”. All TADW performers in the production are required to help strike the show. Students are required to dress safely and appropriately: no open toe shoes, no loose or dangly clothing/jewelry, and please wear clothes they don’t mind getting dirty. STRIKE IS MANDATORY FOR ALL STUDENTS.

CASTING

Casts for both James and the Giant Peach and Mary Poppins will be determined after callbacks on June 3rd.

Casting notifications will be posted live both online and in person on the callboard at Nordhoff Hall no later than 3:00pm on June 3rd.
THE TECH/DESIGN PROGRAM

The Teenage Drama Workshop technical theater and design program consists of extensive courses and practice in scenic construction and design, theatrical lighting design and implementation, sound engineering and design, and general theater management practice. The program – headed by former TADW student and CSUN theater alum, Glen Howes – examines the primary properties a technician would encounter on a daily basis both behind the scenes and on stage. The students of the tech/design program here at TADW work alongside professionals and students alike, learning through hands-on experiences that provide students with universally valuable skills. Students will be divided and assigned to one of the two main stage shows over the summer and will work in their preferred technical field for the run of each particular show. With technical faculty and staff supervision, the students are trained for their assigned positions and will run the technical aspects of the show. By the end of the summer, technical and design students will be efficiently trained in the basic practices of technical theater and will have had ample experiences that will provide them with a strong foundation to support further ambitions in the field of technical theatre.

Classes are from 8:15am – 12:30pm each weekday morning. After lunch, tech/design student schedules will be determined by the production calendar for each individual show. These calendars are distributed by the stage managers, and rehearsal times are at the discretion of the directors.
GENERAL INFORMATION

TRANSPORTATION AND PARKING
Transportation to and from campus is your responsibility. Public transportation is available. Additionally, a carpool list will be distributed to help you make arrangements for students to arrive and leave safely and on time.

Parking on campus in the student lots requires a permit at all times. We recommend parking in Lot B1 as the closest to our building. Parking permits are now available at the blue ticket machines or through the MobileNow app. Simply download the app and sign-up with your contact, vehicle, and payment information. Then, simply enter the location number 2786 and select the amount of time 30 minutes for $1, 2 hours for $4, 4 hours for $6, and full day for $8. Weekly permits are also available through the MobileNow app for $11 per week. After you have downloaded the MobileNow app and signed up, click “Permits” and then “Purchase a new Permit”. Select “CSUN – General Parking” and “CSUN – 7 Day Permit”.

*Parking permits are only valid in student parking lots and spaces.

Please note that the MobileNow system is being implemented at CSUN for the first time this summer and may have some glitches. Please notify us if you have any issues so that we can work to fix them and improve the experience for everyone.

CAMPUS CONDUCT
Teenage Drama Workshop takes place in Nordhoff Hall on the southwest corner of CSUN. The Department office is Nordhoff Hall 110 (NH 110). Remember that TADW runs during an active university session, so we must all be respectful and mindful of those working and studying around us. We are all representatives of TADW and must behave accordingly. Please refrain from congregating and rehearsing in corridors near business offices and keep sound down in buildings. Please be cautious around any construction areas, and respect all posted signs.

EATING FACILITIES
In addition to the meal plan we offer for Subway Tuesdays, El Pollo Loco Wednesdays, and Pizza Fridays, there is a wide variety of food is available at the campus store complex. Please see below for locations and hours. Many students choose to bring their own lunch as well. Please remember to dispose of trash properly!

WORKING CLOTHES

It will be hot in the Valley, and we suggest that you dress coolly and comfortably, but appropriately for a classroom situation. Anyone participating in a tech/design classes must wear closed-toed shoes. Special clothes for movement classes may be required by the instructor.

INVITATIONAL

Invitational is a show only for current and previous TADW members. The Invitational is a TADW tradition held the night before a production opens to the public. This is an opportunity for TADW alumni and current TADW members to see the show free of charge to support the cast before opening night. It is also a chance for current TADW members to meet TADW Alumni.

IMPROV NIGHT

At our improv showcase, typically occurring at the end of the second week of the workshop, students in the Improvisation elective put on an entertaining demonstration of their improv skills. The performance is free, and family and friends are encouraged to attend.

MUNCH & CRUNCH

On the last Sunday of TADW, all TADW participants and their families are invited to our culminating celebration known as Munch & Crunch. This event allows students to demonstrate what they have learned in classes, and the Musical Theatre elective performs a song and dance revue. Following the performances, lunch is served and we eat out on the lawn before certificates and scholarships are awarded. It is a great way to end our summer at TADW.
SAFETY PRECAUTIONS AND RULES

During your six weeks in the Teenage Drama Workshop, you will probably be involved in both classes and production activities which share common spaces—our theatres. The constant building and striking of scenery within a “classroom” presents safety concerns of which you should be aware.

Please read these over carefully—remember, safety is everyone’s responsibility.

1. Pay special attention to the condition of the floor: nails, sawdust, building material scraps may need to be cleared.
2. Please be aware of your surroundings while in theatre spaces and do not touch or climb on any scenic elements until you have been approved to do so.
3. Be aware of the perimeters of the stage area with emphasis paid to the apron (the edge of the stage near the audience).
4. The fly rail (or counterweight system) is off limits to anyone other than authorized personnel. Do not touch any of the ropes attached to the fly rail without permission.
5. Be aware of the black and red curtains in the theatre, and do not touch, move, or pull on these curtains unnecessarily as they are very expensive to replace. Ask a staff member to assist you if you think a curtain needs to be moved.
6. No bare feet. Appropriate footwear must be worn at all times.
7. No smoking, eating or drinking in the theatres or classrooms. Water in a sealable container is the only exception.
   a. Students caught smoking may be suspended from the program without refund.
8. Chewing gum is not allowed in class or in the theatre as it is a distraction and a nuisance to clean up.
9. During classes and rehearsals, cell phones are unnecessary, distracting, and disrespectful. Please silence them and put them away.
10. Warm up before participating in any classes or rehearsals involving movement.
THE ROLE OF PARENTS/GUARDIANS

Parents and guardians play a vital role in TADW. Your participation and support are very important to a smooth summer.

PARENT MEETINGS

Parent Meetings are held most Friday afternoons. These meetings allow parents to meet with staff members, get answers to questions and find out how to stay involved.

TICKET SELLING

We rely on everyone’s help to fill up the theatre. We ask everyone to try to sell 25-50 tickets each. Please help by letting friends and families know they can buy tickets. Tickets may be ordered online by going to the TADW website at www.csun.edu/tadw or by calling the TICKET OFFICE (818) 677-2488, or at the Associated Students Ticket Office on campus. We have posters and flyers that can be displayed in local stores or handed out to friends and family.

USHERING

We need parent volunteers to help us usher all TADW shows. Ushers arrive 30 minutes before the show begins and take tickets, pass out programs, sell concessions after the show, and sell TADW Grams ($1 to send a little note to a performer backstage). A sign-up sheet for ushers is available at the Parent Meetings. All ushers see the show for free if there are still seats available. A TADW staff member serves as house manager and can answer any questions.

PHONE CALL TREE

About once a summer, we need parents to help make phone calls to all families to check in and make sure they are receiving newsletters and other communications.

FUND RAISING

TADW is always looking for individuals, families, and businesses who would like to make a tax-deductible contribution and sponsor under-privileged youth organizations by buying tickets for them to see our shows. Please contact Garry Lennon to make a donation or to sponsor a group of your choice.
TADW CLASS SCHEDULE

Rehearsal – 1:15 – 4:15

Rehearsals for Mary Poppins & James and Giant Peach will take place after lunch Monday through Friday 1:15pm-4:15pm.

There will be a few Saturday rehearsals from 10am-3pm. You will be notified of these rehearsals ahead of time. Once each show has been cast, production calendars will be sent out.*

Once we get into the tech process for each show, we will need to extend rehearsals until 6:00pm as we will need the extra time to integrate lighting, sound cues, costumes, etc.

TADW SCHOLARSHIPS

THE BURROUGHS FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP IN MEMORY OF ANN BURROUGHS

The Burroughs Family Scholarship in Memory of Ann Burroughs is named for the late Ann Burroughs, who was a long-time administrative analyst in the CSUN Department of Theatre and a great friend to the Workshop. The scholarship is funded by the Burroughs family and provides two $500 scholarships for students with financial need.

SAM LOEB “SPIRIT OF TADW” SCHOLARSHIP

Named for the late Sam Loeb, a TADW student who lost his battle with cancer, this full scholarship is given annually to the student who best exemplifies the spirit of the Teenage Drama Workshop, namely leadership, friendship, artistry and commitment. Loeb family members and friends provide the funding for this annual award.

MARY ELLEN CLEMONS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship is named for the longtime and legendary TADW director and instructor Maryellen Clemons, a professor emeritus from CSUN’s Department of Theatre who also served as acting chair of the department. The Maryellen Clemons Award is given to the “ideal” TADW student. The award is presented at the end of the summer and includes a half-scholarship for the following year.

NANCY CARTWRIGHT SCHOLARSHIP

Well-known as the voice of Bart Simpson, Nancy is also a generous and longtime supporter of the Teenage Drama Workshop. Her donations not only fund scholarships for students, but also provide tickets to TADW shows for at-risk children from the Devonshire PALs (Police Activities League).
TADW PARTICIPANT CODE OF CONDUCT

Our goal is for everyone involved in TADW to have a rich and rewarding experience. TADW becomes a community during the summer. For that reason, everyone needs to respect one another and take into account the feelings of the people we interact with.

Please discuss these expectations with your TADW member.

TADW CODE OF CONDUCT:

1. TADW members are expected to arrive on time for classes and rehearsals.
2. TADW members are expected to report absences as soon as possible. Anyone who misses too many classes or rehearsals is in jeopardy of not participating in a production.
3. TADW members are expected to follow the directions and cooperate with teachers, administrators and most importantly the directors of the show they are involved with.
4. TADW members are expected to be respectful to others at all times.
   a. No inappropriate language.
   b. No spreading rumors or gossip about others.
   c. No stealing of any kind.
5. TADW members will remain on the CSUN campus unless signed parental permission is on file.

Anyone not able to follow these expectations will be asked to leave the program. If this happens there will not be a refund of registration or other fees.

------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

A separate attachment of this Code of Conduct will be included with the handbook as well as on page 22. Please print, sign, and return it to TADW at auditions or by the first day of classes.
TADW ATTENDANCE POLICY

A key to producing good theater is regular class and rehearsal attendance. To that end, the following policies will govern attendance for TADW productions and classes.

Permission to miss classes and rehearsals for vacations and summer school is ONLY given in the rarest of circumstances, and usually results in limited participation in the productions.

Class Attendance Policy:

1. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each class.
2. Two tardies equal one absence.
3. Students who are absent or tardy from more than two class sessions will be asked to meet with the class teacher and Managing Director.
4. Too many absences or tardies will affect the final class grade.
5. Withdrawing from the TADW classes before the end of the program, will result in NO CREDIT.

Rehearsal Attendance Policy:

1. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each day's rehearsal.
2. Students who are absent from two rehearsals (excused or unexcused) will be asked to attend a review with the Show Director, Production Manager and/or staff members. The director and staff members will determine what course of action to take, up to and including the dismissal of the student from the production.
3. Two tardies count as one absence.
4. Withdrawing from a TADW production before the end of the program may jeopardize enrollment in subsequent summers.

Policy Definitions

TADW Participant Code of Conduct

Our goal is for everyone involved in TADW to have a rich and rewarding experience. TADW becomes a community during the summer. For that reason, everyone needs to respect one another and take into account the feelings of the people we interact with.

Please discuss these expectations with your TADW member.

TADW CODE OF CONDUCT:

1. TADW members are expected to arrive on time for classes and rehearsals.
2. TADW members are expected to report absences as soon as possible. Anyone who misses too many classes or rehearsals is in jeopardy of not participating in a production.
3. TADW members are expected to follow the directions and cooperate with teachers, administrators and most importantly the directors of the show they are involved with.
4. TADW members are expected to be respectful to others at all times.
   a. No inappropriate language.
   b. No spreading rumors or gossip about others.
   c. No stealing of any kind.
5. TADW members will remain on the CSUN campus unless signed parental permission is on file.

Anyone not able to follow these expectations will be asked to leave the program. If this happens there will not be a refund of registration or other fees.

We have read and discussed the TADW Code of Conduct and agree to follow the expectations.
