Position:

The Department of Music at California State University, Northridge (CSUN) is seeking a tenure-track faculty member in Music Therapy at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor.

The successful candidate will:

- Teach undergraduate courses in music therapy
- Serve as advisor for all music therapy students
- Coordinate and supervise music therapy clinical fieldwork and internships
- Serve as the liaison with internship site supervisors
- Recruit and interview potential music therapy students
- Teach additional courses within the Department of Music as needed
- Develop additional music therapy courses as needed
- Maintain active involvement in research and professional scholarship
- Oversee operations of the CSUN Music Therapy Wellness Clinic as its Director, including supervising clinicians and staff, scheduling, budget, grants, equipment, and serving as liaison to the community.

In addition to teaching, the position requires weekly office hours, attending faculty meetings, and service to the department, college, and university. The successful candidate will be held to the standards and requirements of the college and department in which he/she/they is/are housed for recommending tenure and promotion.

Qualifications:

As a Hispanic-serving Institution (HSI), inclusiveness and diversity are integral to CSUN's commitment to excellence in teaching, research, and engagement. The successful candidate will help the Department achieve equitable outcomes for all students through teaching, student mentorship, scholarship, and service.

Required Qualifications:

- Master's Degree in Music Therapy from an accredited institution required, Ph.D. desirable
- Music Therapy Board Certification (MT-BC) required
- Evidence of professional clinical and supervision experience, with more extensive experience expected for an Associate level appointment.

- A publication record in scholarship/research, with a more extensive record expected for an Associate level appointment.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Evidence of successful teaching experience at the university or college level using culturally responsive pedagogy that leads to equitable outcomes for all students, with a minimum of 4 years of higher education teaching experience for an Associate level appointment
- Participation in regional and/or national professional organizations
- Membership in the American Music Therapy Association
- Evidence of commitment to diversity in teaching, research, and clinical practice

Application Deadline:

Screening of applications will begin on November 10, 2021. Priority will be given to applicants who meet the screening deadline; however, the position will remain open until filled.

How to Apply:

Candidates should apply by completing the CSUN online application. To submit an application and for more detailed information on the application and hiring process, please visit this link: www.csun.edu/careers

Applicants must submit a cover letter, curriculum vitae, statement on achieving student success, and the names of three referees who can address the candidate's teaching, research, and service qualifications to the website in the section above. In later phases of the search process, applicants may be requested to provide additional materials, including letters of recommendation, professional work samples, and work produced through student mentoring.

At time of appointment, the successful candidate, if not a U.S. citizen, must have authorization from the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) to work in the United States.
