

Control of the Presence of Firearms on Campus

Policy No.: 800-01

Effective: 11/01/04

POLICY:

It is illegal, without permission of the Chief of Police of the California State University, Northridge, for anyone except duly appointed law enforcement personnel, to bring or possess a firearm upon the grounds or buildings of the University including the grounds and buildings of the University enterprise and auxiliary organizations.

PURPOSE:

The purpose of this policy is to regulate the possession/use of firearms on the campus of California State University, Northridge.

PROCEDURES:

Persons seeking permission to possess a firearm on the campus of California State University Northridge must contact the Department of Police Services, at the corner of Prairie and Darby Streets, and complete a "Request for Permission to Bring or Possess a Firearm on Campus" form. This form will be reviewed by the Chief of Police as a basis for initiating a review of the request. The review may also require a personal interview.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

The Chief of Police is the President's designee for authorizing possession of a firearm on campus.
