HOW TO REGISTER FOR AN INDIVIDUAL CLASS AT CSUN

Through Open University, you may enroll in university credit courses without formally applying to CSUN. (Enrollment is dependent upon space availability and instructor approval.) Open University registration always begins on the first day of classes. Attend the first class meeting to request a permission number, which can then be used to register online or in-person. For information on how to register for courses, visit the Tseng College of Extended Learning website at: <http://tsengcollege.csun.edu/programs/openuniversity>

You can find the class sessions, time, location and other detailed information regarding the courses by accessing the Class Search link located on the CSUN home page. No login is required.
