2018-2019
BUILD PODER Faculty Writing Group Application

Deadline: 5 pm, Monday, October 1, 2018 and ongoing

Each semester writing groups will be composed of approximately 4 faculty members who will meet weekly goals for writing through collective support and problem-solving as well as concentrated and committed writing times for accountability. The writing group will meet with Carrie Saetermoe for purposes of support and the development of Individualized Development Plans for publication, grant-writing, and career development. Faculty who participate fully will receive $2500 and another $2500 upon submission of your proposal or manuscript. The writing group will meet three hours weekly:

- One hour each week to discuss progress and group accountability plus
- Two hours each week for concentrated writing time
- Each IDP will require reflection and (very) specific goal-setting
