

Biosphere

The Weekly Bulletin of Biology

Biology Colloquium (Friday 2 PM in CR 5125)

Dr. Graciél Unguez
New Mexico State University

“Extreme Muscle Plasticity in Electric Fish: Cellular and Molecular Insights”

New Publications

Toni Uhlendorf, our vivarium supervisor, and graduate students Rus Nuryyev and Shahab Younesi from Dr. Randy Cohen's lab will publish “Efficacy of two delivery routes for transplanting human neural progenitor cells (NPC) into the spastic Han-Wistar rat, a model of ataxia” in the journal Cell Transplantation. The work was done in collaboration with the biotechnology firm Celavie Biosciences (Oxnard).

Prof. Dudgeon, 2016 Open Access Awardee

On October 25, the Oviatt Library will honor Dr. Steve Dudgeon, recipient of the Third Annual Library Open Access Award at “Open Access: A Day of Data”, a daylong discussion of open data for research and instruction.

Museum Workshop – November 1 @ 6pm

Graduate Student Calvin Won, from the Cabrillo Marine Aquarium Exhibits and Collections Department will host a workshop to hone your skills on the proper preparation of specimens for collections and biological research.

The next Biology Alumni Association BIOBASH is approaching fast !
Thursday November 3 at 6PM (free for Faculty and Students!)