

Byron Stufken

Assistant Vice President, Entertainment & Media Industry, Marsh

Byron Stufken is currently an Assistant Vice President in the Entertainment & Media Industry at Marsh. In his role, Byron acts as a broker and consultant to his clients, predominately in the TV & Film space.

Byron has a unique perspective of the insurance industry ascribed to working on both the client and carrier side prior to joining Marsh. Byron joined Marsh after working for FOX as a Senior Analyst in the risk management department and, prior to that, spent time as a Major Accounts casualty underwriter at AIG in Atlanta.

Byron joined the industry full time after graduating with a degree in Risk Management & Insurance from the University of Georgia in 2015.
