

Chris Chang Dumortier
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT
REAL ESTATE and HOSPITALITY
GROUP

ACCOMPLISHMENTS AND AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Chris Chang Dumortier is Executive Vice President in the Alliant Real Estate practice based in Los Angeles. Chris' expertise is in developing and servicing clients who specialize in Hospitality and Real Estate development, acquisition, management, ownership and operator of limited service to full-scale resorts, entertainment venues, and attractions.

With over 18 years of industry experience as a commercial insurance broker, Chris has been focused on the unique needs of the hospitality and real estate sector. Building master insurance programs that streamline coverage to produce significant savings for clients, Chris has always maintained that hard work, integrity, quality and professionalism should be the standard in our industry. She strives to lead our industry by providing superior insight on all lines of insurance placement, comprehensive risk management evaluation and consultation, proactive claims management and loss control for her clients. In 2019, Chris' hospitality program had written annual premium in excess of $40 million.

Chris is the honoree of 2019 Woman to Watch by Business Insurance. The highly-competitive awards program recognizes outstanding women in risk management for their expertise, leadership and accomplishments.

EDUCATION, PROFESSIONAL, AND PERSONAL INTERESTS:

Chris earned her Master's degree in Public Policy from UCLA. She is fluent in Chinese, Taiwanese and English. Chris is a licensed Property & Casualty retail broker in California and has non-resident licenses in many other states.

When away from her Alliant responsibilities, Chris enjoys spending time/traveling with his husband and three daughters as well as playing piano.