DiMascio Family Scholarship

AY 2016-2017

In coordination with the Department of Modern and Classical Languages and Literatures and College of Humanities, the DiMascio Family Scholarship Endowment will award an annual scholarship of $1,000 to a second-year language student planning to study abroad.

Eligibility Criteria:
Students must be 1) a major or minor in language and culture, 2) enrolled full time with at least twelve (12) units, and 3) have a grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 or higher.

During the academic year upon return from the program abroad, the candidate will be expected to take at least one additional foreign language course in the language from the country in which the study abroad occurred.

To apply, please submit the following to the MCLL main office, Sierra Tower 405/407:
1) A typed, double-spaced essay addressing your motivation for going abroad, your intended contributions as part of the program to the culture and people with whom you will interact during your study abroad, and how the study abroad program will impact your life in the future.
2) A scholarship application (can be picked up from ST 405).
3) Unofficial transcripts

A member of the DiMascio family will be invited to meet with the annual recipient of the scholarship, whenever possible.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: April 15, 2016
