

Revised Policy on Eligibility for Emeritus Status
(Approved April 20, 2006)

The President of the University may grant Emeritus status to a senior faculty member who has retired from active service in the CSU system and who, prior to retirement, served at least ten years as a full-time tenure-track member of the CSUN faculty. Those faculty members participating in the Faculty Early Retirement Program may be granted Emeritus status after completing their final semester of teaching service.