ENGLISH 253

Harry Potter: Best Selling Literature

T/R 2-3:15    #20457

This course will engage in a complex exploration of JK Rowling’s book series. Among various topics to discuss are the gothic genre and its tropes; issues of censorship; and the heroic adventures of Harry as he navigates the troubles that plague him as a result of Voldemort’s monstrous dissection and transference of his soul into various symbolic objects.

This course is Available for General Education (Lifelong Learning)