Looking for an interesting and intellectually enriching class for Spring 2018?

MODERN ITALIAN CULTURE

FLIT 371

When:
Tuesday & Thursday
12:30 pm - 1:45 pm

Where:
JR 301

Prof. Anthony Costantini

This course is a survey of contemporary Italy. Captures the major literary and cultural aspects and examines the social relations, customs, traditions and productive forces that have contributed to the emergence of Italy as a leading industrial European country. Meets the upper division General Education writing requirements. Conducted in English.

Prerequisites:
Completion of the lower division writing requirement

Available for General Education, Comparative Cultural Studies