When: Tuesday & Thursday
11:00 am - 12:15 pm

Where: JR 245

Looking for an interesting and intellectually enriching class for Spring 2018?

CULTURAL DEVELOPMENTS IN MODERN RUSSIA

FLIT 380

Prof. Ludmila Posner

This course is conducted in English, and examines the cultural history and current developments of the Slavic people in the Russian States and Eastern Europe, and traces the role of these people in American culture and society. Conducted in English.

Upper division elective for languages and culture B.A. and for the minor in Russian (Liberal Studies Program)