We hope you’re enjoying the start of the Fall semester! If you haven’t already, we encourage you to visit our new webpage where you will not only find information about our events, but also resources to aid in your professional development. You’ll see that we’ve been developing a number of new collaborations -- join us at some of our events to learn more!

Sincerely,
Daisy Lemus & Janet Oh

The 2012 Distinguished Teaching/Counseling/Librarianship award winners and Faculty President Steven Stepanek joined Faculty Development on Sept. 4 to share their insights and experiences working with students. If you were not able to attend the session, we encourage you to view the video on our YouTube channel.
Join the App Harvest! The Faculty Technology Center and Faculty Development are collecting suggestions for apps related to teaching, learning or other educational ventures. Take a minute out of your day to share your favorite app with us!

OUT AND ABOUT...

- Visit the Valley Performing Arts Center (VPAC) Ticket Office one day up to one hour prior to a performance and ask about $15 tickets for Faculty and Staff. Tickets come on a first-come-first-served basis, and are based on availability. Must provide CSUN ID upon purchase. For information on events, visit http://www.valleyperformingartscenter.org/calendar/.

- Where do used instruments, marching band uniforms, tables, refrigerators, jewelry, and computers go when government agencies no longer want them? To AUCTION! For more information, visit the Public Surplus website at: http://www.publicsurplus.com/.

- Interested in discussing social justice issues? The Soulcial Justic Poetry Lounge meets the 3rd Wednesday of each month (7-9pm). The next Poetry Lounge takes place October 20! For more details, visit the Civil Discourse & Social Change website.
