ARTS COUNCIL

Founded in 1971, the Arts Council meets every Monday during the school year. Specifically created to support the Art Galleries and Departments of Music and Theatre, the Arts Council for CSUN provides ushering assistance during musical and theatre performances, as well as staffing and conducting tours in the Main Art Gallery. The Arts Council manages and operates the Art Gallery Store and the Music Shoppe, with proceeds going towards Department programs and student scholarships.

Membership benefits:
- Weekly faculty briefings and lectures
- Discounts on CSUN performances, workshops, concerts and Art Gallery store merchandise
- Subscription to members-only newsletter
- Docent member (20 hours service per semester)

Membership provides special tours and events within the visual and performing arts among like-minded people. Regular and frequent interaction with faculty and students boosts knowledge of current cultural changes within these disciplines. We look forward to hearing from interested persons seeking to enhance their lifestyle and take part in this worthy program.

WHY GIVE TO CSUN?

Because every dollar makes a difference.
Annual giving allows loyal alumni, parents, students, employees and friends to support CSUN. Your contribution benefits current and future students; paying for financial aid, technology improvements, lab equipment, course development and so much more.

Because every donor makes a difference.
Donation rates are one of the key factors used to rank schools in national listings and when competing for grants. This year, CSUN is aiming to be 7,000 donors strong.
Voice your Matador pride and donate today!

To find out how you can help in any of our six departments, please contact the College’s Director of Development, Michael Ryan, at michael.ryan@csun.edu or 818-677-4196.
SUPPORTERS
