MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

Between

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, NORTHRIDGE, U.S.A.

NAME OF UNIVERSITY, CITY, STATE

Effective Date through Date

In the spirit of international cooperation, and in recognition of the mutual educational interests and research aspirations of the two institutions, California State University, Northridge (CSUN), located in Northridge, California, United States, and Name of University (school acronym), located in city, state, agree to work together to explore a broad range of possible scholarly and educational collaborations including, but not limited to, the following:

- The exchange of faculty and students between the two institutions, as well as joint teaching and research projects.
- Admission of each other's undergraduate and graduate students in keeping with the academic standards, rules, procedures, policies and practices of each institution for international students.
- Promoting students' study-abroad experiences and improving their English language skills via CSUN's Semester at CSUN program (SAC) and Intensive English programs (IEP).

If the exploration of possible collaboration yields an idea for a specific academic initiative or exchange, CSUN and school acronym agree to develop a separate written agreement or memorandum of understanding (MOU) that details the specific terms of the initiative/exchange in question. It is also understood that such a separate MOU would require full review and approval in keeping with the policies and practices at CSUN and school acronym.

This MOU for exploration of possibilities does not involve any immediate funding or other institutional resources. However, each institution shall support development of joint programs, as feasible, and shall be responsible for the cost of its participation in projects and activities, unless otherwise agreed upon in advance in writing.

This general institutional friendship MOU, once endorsed by the approving authorities at CSUN and school acronym, will become effective Date and will be valid until Date. Either institution may terminate the agreement in advance of its normal expiration, provided that written notice is provided from the terminating institution to the president of the other. This MOU may be renewed with the written agreement of both parties.
