

GOLDEN GLOBE FOUNDATION DIVERSITY FUND SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

The Golden Globe Foundation has created a new scholarship fund in the Department of Journalism. These funds will be awarded to full-time Journalism majors entering their Junior or Senior year with at least two semesters remaining to finish their degree (GPA: 2.5 or higher). The scholarship is also available to the Department’s graduate students enrolled in at least six units or enrolled in Thesis (GPA: 3.0 or higher).

This scholarship is designed to support students from traditionally underserved communities and/or representing traditionally underrepresented groups, with demonstrated financial need.

Applicants must submit a 300-500 word essay showing how their own background would inform their journalistic or PR work to advance an accurate and comprehensive portrayal of diversity in the entertainment, media and PR industries.

Four scholarships of $2,500 each will be awarded this year.
