Hosted by the Harambee Council and the African American student community at CSUN, the Harambee High School Conference is a chance to see some of the exciting opportunities available at CSUN. Lunch will be provided.

Guests will:

- Meet CSUN students, faculty and staff
- Attend workshops
- Tour the campus
- Discover the cultural legacy of African Americans in the pursuit of higher education

RSVP by Dec. 9. Sign up with your college counselor.