A Black History Web Series

The Great Griot is a digital media company created to entertain and TEACH black history. We create videos that inspire the masses (of all ages) throughout the black diaspora to learn more about our history from a non-Eurocentric perspective. With every video we aim to shed light on:

- The great revolutionary leaders of our past and present
- The events that were turning point in history as they actually occurred
- The culture that we lost
- And so much more!

The Great Griot currently has viewers in America, South America, the Caribbean Island, UK, select countries in Africa including Nigeria, Senegal, Burkino Faso, South Africa and expanding daily.
