

Make a Difference.

Become an MBK Peer Advocate.

Serve as a liaison to your community and help create library programs.

The MBK Challenge, launched by former President Obama in February 2014, calls upon cities, counties and tribal governments to make a difference in improving outcomes for boys and young men of color.

As an MBK Peer Advocate for LA County Library, you will:

- Assist the Library in supporting special projects, services and programming related to the Young Men of Color (YMOC)/My Brother's Keeper (MBK) Mentoring Programs initiatives
- Work closely with Library staff in a supportive and creative environment
- Learn and understand Library services and program offerings (both online and in person)
- Serve on Library Youth Advisory Board
- Attend and participate in programs related to MBK initiative
- Create programs around your own passions and interests (see examples of past MBK Peer Advocate programs here: bit.ly/MBKPrograms)
- Provide support and assistance at Homework Center at assigned location
- Interact with and promote programs to youth and community stakeholders
- Serve and help shape the future of the community
- Expand your skills and knowledge by mentoring youth in your community
- Get training and experience that can help with future schooling and employment
