

Laura Hamilton Regional Vice President, Southern California Region, Middle Market

Laura Hamilton is the Regional Vice President of the Southern California Region, which covers Ventura, Los Angeles, Orange, Inland Empire and San Diego Counties. Her primary focus is on Middle Market General Industries and Technology but as head of her region, she serves as liaison to our top agents and brokers on an enterprise level.

Prior to joining The Hartford in 2018, Laura served in various roles with Travelers Insurance throughout her 18 year tenure. Most of her time was within National Accounts Casualty holding roles in Management, Marketing and Underwriting. She was also Southern California's Regional Director, overseeing the firm's relationships with their agency partners and acted as a conduit to assist with cross selling amongst divisions. Laura started her career at Travelers in their Financial Leadership Management program.

Laura was born and raised in Monroe, CT and enjoys sports, particularly basketball. She holds a bachelor's degree in Finance from Bryant University. Laura currently resides in Redondo Beach and is a busy mother to three children; an 11 year old daughter and twin 9 year old boys.
