

Linda Nichols Joseph English Merit Scholarship

In memory of Linda Nichols Joseph, an English major who graduated cum laude from California State University, Northridge, in 1981, up to four prizes of $2,000 each will be awarded every year to undergraduate English majors who have demonstrated excellence in their studies. The awards will be made by a committee appointed annually by the Department of English, and will be announced at the English Department's fall or spring celebration.

Guidelines:

1. The minimum overall CSUN GPA for successful applicants is 3.5.
2. Preference will be given to applicants who demonstrate financial need to complete their degree. Financial need will be verified by CSUN's Financial Aid & Scholarship Department. Students graduating in Fall 2020 may apply.
3. Preference may be given to applicants who also demonstrate engagement in the discipline and/or commitment to further study in English.

Application materials:

1. Letter from the applicant that addresses his or her qualifications for the award, including such issues as financial need, and/or engagement in the discipline, and/or commitment to further study in English—maximum of two single-spaced pages.
2. Résumé or CV—maximum of two pages.
3. Two letters of recommendation (at least one from a faculty member in CSUN's English Department who can speak to the applicant's academic promise).
4. Financial Aid release form (attached to this application).

Application deadline:

Students may pick up the Financial Aid release form and submit application materials to Wendy Ventura (wendy.ventura@csun.edu) no later than

4:00 p.m. on Friday,
November 20, 2020
