

Lindsey Harris

Director, Risk Management | Dollar Tree, Inc.

Lindsey Harris is the Director, Risk Management at Dollar Tree, Inc. In her role, Harris is responsible for proactively identifying, managing and responding to the company's exposures which includes ~16,000 stores, 25 distribution centers and nearly 190,000 associates. She oversees insurance procurement, vendor management, workers' compensation, property and subrogated claims. In addition, she has responsibilities which include budgeting for the department, contract review for all vendor insurance requirements, and business continuity guidance for the enterprise.

Prior to Dollar Tree, Inc., Harris was manager of business continuity at PetSmart and spent years in the non-profit sector before entering the risk management space. She earned her bachelor's degree from The University of Alabama, as well as a law degree from the University of Tulsa College of Law and her ARM from The Institutes.