

Love your CSUN webpage? Test it with our checklist!

About your webpage:	YES	NO
✓ Does it visually engage students and other campus users?
✓ Is it welcoming?
✓ Does it have appropriate and interesting photos?
✓ Can students and other visitors navigate through information about your program easily and locate important deadlines?
✓ Do you regularly update the information on the page?
✓ Is contact information easy to find?
✓ Does it contain links, resources, and other features that make it useful to returning visitors?
✓ If you're using Web-One news stories, have you selected a different lede image for each story in your list?
✓ Have you followed best practices for accessibility of your content and images? If not, you can easily get started with the Universal Design Center videos and tutorials!

If you answered YES to all of these questions, your page is on the right track. Missing some opportunities to engage viewers? Let us help you! Check our webpage for best practices, examples, and resources to get started!
