Join An Important Conversation on the LA Housing Crisis and How Dedicated People are Working to Bring Change

- WHAT: The Ethnic Studies Pathways Project, in collaboration with the University Student Union (USU), invites all CSUN students, faculty and staff to our webinar discussing the housing crisis in Los Angeles and other relevant issues at Envisioning What is Housing as a Human Right. On Thursday, April 15, join us for this program advocating for equity and social justice featuring LA housing activists Martha Escudero, Jimmy Ramos, Professor Stevie Ruiz, and Professor Martha Escobar as they discuss the impacts of unhousing, displacement and gentrification.
- WHO: Jessica Aceves, HEAL Project Coordinator, is responsible for this event.
- WHEN: Thursday, April 15 from 12:30 to 1:45 p.m.
- WHERE: Zoom (Register here: https://csun.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_7-YX45xeQmW91H7iXIVGtw%3E)
- WHY: This is a great opportunity for all Matadors to attend an informative webinar where they'll join the conversation about this very pressing issue that is impacting many families and bringing awareness to the LA housing situation.
- BACKGROUND: Come discover how you can work to create real change in the housing crisis during Envisioning What is Housing as a Human Right. Be sure to register online to save your spot for this virtual discussion over Zoom. Interpreters will be provided upon request. For more information on this event, please visit csun.edu/usu.
