“An AROdynamic SpACE” Event to Celebrate Asexual and Aromantic Identities at the Pride Center of the University Student Union

- WHAT: The Pride Center of the University Student Union (USU) invites all who identify as members of CSUN’s asexual (ACE) and aromantic (ARO) community and their allies to come together in “An AROdynamic SpACE” to meet new friends and participate in various fun activities that celebrate their identity. If you would rather eat cake than have sex, this is the event for you.
- WHO: Serena Hinton, Student Pride Center Assistant, is responsible for putting on this event.
- WHEN: Tuesday, Oct. 23.
- WHERE: Pride Center, second floor of the Sol Center at the University Student Union.
- WHY: Celebrate CSUN’s asexual and aromantic community in a supportive and dedicated space.
- BACKGROUND: Whether you identify as asexual or aromantic, you are welcome to take part in this special event. It’s all about making new friends while building a community that asexual and aromantic individuals can call their own! It will be a fun time for all – including a cake decorating contest! For more information on this event or the Pride Center, please visit www.csun.edu/pride.
