Channel Your Inner Singer at “Karaoke Nights” in the Games Room of the University Student Union

- WHAT: The Pride Center of the University Student Union (USU) calls all singing Matadors to join the fun at “Karaoke Nights” in the Games Room at the USU. On February 6th, all CSUN students and staff get an amazing opportunity to take the stage and belt out their favorite hits, new or old. Delicious free food and lively singing await you and your friends at “Karaoke Nights”!
- WHO: Dawn Joves, Student Event Assistant, is responsible for putting on this event.
- WHEN: Wednesday, February 13th from 8 p.m.- 10 p.m.
- WHERE: Games Room, University Student Union (located downstairs across from the Student Recreation Center main entrance)
- WHY: This energetic event provides students the chance to enjoy free food and great entertainment with their fellow Matadors.
- BACKGROUND: Pride Center’s “Karaoke Nights” invites Matadors to sing their heart out at this fun-filled event. Free food and games will be provided, and ASL interpreters will be available upon request. For more information about “Karaoke Nights”, the Pride Center, University Student Union and the Games Room, please visit on csun.edu/usu.
