“Let’s Talk” with University Counseling Services is Back Every Week Online from the Pride Center

- WHAT: The Pride Center of the University Student Union (USU) invites all LGBTQIA+ students to express whatever’s on your mind with certified professionals from the University Counseling Center during “Let’s Talk”. Whether it’s stress, anxiety, or academic concerns, this event is here to offer support and conversation with students through any difficult time. Every Monday and Tuesday from May 26 to August 18, this valuable resource will be available for students to discuss any concern.
- WHO: Sarina Loeb, Manager at the Pride Center, is responsible for coordinating this event.
- WHEN: Every Monday and Tuesday from 2 to 3 p.m.
- WHERE: Zoom Meeting
- WHY: This event gives all participants the chance to join a supportive conversation with consultation services to find the best solutions for any challenges students are facing.
- BACKGROUND: The Pride Center, in virtual collaboration with University Counseling Services, is here online to support the LGBTQIA+ community during these unprecedented times of quarantine and social distancing with “Let’s Talk” for two hours each week. The USU and UCS are committed to help guide all participants to the best solution possible. For more information on the “Let’s Talk” program, please visit csun.edu/counseling/lets-talk.
