Embrace an Exclusively Trans Community of Unwavering Support at the Pride Center’s “T-Time” this Fall

- WHAT: The Pride Center of the University Student Union (USU) welcomes all transgender, gender-questioning, gender non-conforming and non-binary CSUN students to T-Time. This exclusive, supportive space encourages students to embrace their identity by connecting with their peers, sharing personal experiences and giving out helpful advice. With these dynamic conversations, students have the freedom to express themselves and build a safe community.
- WHO: Whitney Workman, Acting Pride Center Coordinator, is supervising this event.
- WHEN: Wednesdays between Aug. 31 to Dec. 7 from 5-6:30 p.m.
- WHERE: Pride Center (2nd Floor) Sol Center, University Student Union
- WHY: This event provides transgender, gender questioning, gender non-conforming and non-binary CSUN students community support and the opportunity to discuss their intersecting identities, support networks and resources.
- BACKGROUND: The Pride Center commits to helping transgender, gender questioning, gender non-conforming and non-binary CSUN students thrive with T-Time. Students must RSVP before the event. For more information, please visit csun.edu/pride.
