Get a Fun Full-Body Workout with “Key Log Rolling” at the SRC Rec Pool in the University Student Union

- WHAT: The Student Recreation Center (SRC) at the University Student Union invites all SRC members, faculty and staff to participate in “Key Log Rolling”. Come experience this exciting, unique and low impact swimming pool workout that members can enjoy with their friends. Starting Monday, March 5, join in on the fun with this safe, full body workout!
- WHO: Ryan Hairapetian, SRC Aquatics Coordinator, is responsible for coordinating this event.
- WHEN: From Monday, March 5, to Friday, May 25, Key Log Rolling will be available every Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m.
- WHERE: Located in the SRC Rec Pool at the University Student Union.
- WHY: Provide students a fun opportunity to stay fit during the school year and experience a unique workout.
- BACKGROUND: In this workout similar to log rolling events seen on TV, participants will use the Key Log Roller: a 65-pound synthetic log that floats, spins and reacts just like a traditional cedar wood log. SRC members can put their balancing skills to the test, while improving their endurance and building core strength. Individuals interested in participating can arrive at the SRC pool deck on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. For more information, visit csun.edu/src/aquatics.
