Experience a Special Event featuring “Live Sound Healing Music by Shervin Bolorian”, presented by the Student Recreation Center

- WHAT: The Student Recreation Center (SRC) of the University Student Union (USU) invites the entire CSUN community to attend the “Live Sound Healing Music by Shervin Bolorian” special event. A CSUN alumnus now based in Bali, Bolorian is a celebrated multi-instrumentalist vocalist and renowned sound therapist who is bringing his peace-inducing talent to two special sessions. In Session 1, Bolorian will inspire participants with live music, sacred sounds and ancient chants while they engage in a two-hour restorative yoga class led by an SRC yoga instructor. In Session 2, Bolorian will again reinvigorate attendees with sound healing music and chants. Don’t miss out on your choice of these amazing free events!
- WHO: Amanda Christianson, SRC Fitness Coordinator, is responsible for this event.
- WHEN: Registration is open now through Thursday, April 5. The event will take place on April 5, with two separate sessions: Session 1 will take place from 12 to 2 p.m. and Session 2 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.
- WHERE: Motivation Studio at the Student Recreation Center of the USU
- WHY: This event provides the CSUN community the opportunity to experience rejuvenating sound healing with a prominent professional.
- BACKGROUND: This event is open to everyone at CSUN. SRC membership is not required. Limited space is available. To register for Session 1, please visit https://src_yogasoundhealingevent.eventbrite.com. To register for the Session 2, please visit https://src_soundhealingevent.eventbrite.com. To access the EventBrite pages, please enter the passcode, “Soundhealing”. For more information on these events and the Student Recreation Center, please visit csun.edu/src.
