Media Alert

VRC Invites All Students with Military Ties to Virtual “Military-Connected”

- WHAT: The Veterans Resource Center (VRC) of the University Student Union (USU) invites CSUN students who are military dependents, have family members who serve or who have other military ties, to come share their experiences with other students like them at its Military-Connected event. This supportive spring semester event is to encourage students who are not veterans but do have military connections to learn about the many resources they are offered at the VRC and across campus. Drop by online via Zoom, make some new friends and find out what the VRC can do for you!
- WHO: Mayra Plascencia, VRC Manager, is responsible for this event.
- WHEN: Friday, Feb. 19 from 12 to 1:30 p.m.
- WHERE: Zoom (Meeting ID: 938 8818 0795 Password: Veteran)
- WHY: This is an opportunity for military-connected students to meet and mingle with CSUN students just like them while learning about the range of resources the VRC has to offer.
- BACKGROUND: You can register now to attend Military-Connected! It is intended for all students who are not veterans but do have military ties to learn about the VRC and take advantage of its support. For more details and to RSVP for this special event, please visit the VRC website at csun.edu/vrc.
